Fairfield company to hold job fair

By Eric Robinette

Staff Writer

FAIRFIELD — Access Financial, which recently completed the expansion of its customer service center, is on the lookout for people to fill more than 100 new jobs.

The job fair will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 6 at the company's Fairfield center at 100 Commercial Drive. They moved there last year from Blue Ash.

"This new center has allowed our company to better serve the financial needs of our clients and customers," said Doug Clark, Chief Operating Officer of Access Financial. "Access Financial is pleased to create jobs in the Greater Cincinnati area."

The new space features operations in the areas of customer service, collections, ecommerce marketing, IT support services and call center needs.

Candidates are asked to bring an updated copy of their resume. The positions featured at this job fair will include a variety of collections specialists and loan servicing representatives. there are 10 positions open for collections specialists and seven for loan servicing representatives.
