

CAAC Meeting for Tuesday, April 15, 2014

- Call to Order / Roll Call List was passed around.
 - Meeting called to order at 7:03 pm
 - In attendance were: Darin Newcomer, Pat Davis, Heidi Schiller, Bekka Reardon, Victoria Bailey, Leslie Besl, Joan Hume, Sherry Knapp-Brown, and Abigail Slaven.
 - Absent: Bob Breen, Ben Strickler, and Ray Sullivan.
- Minutes- Reviewed minutes from March. Bekka made the motion, Pat 2nd the motion. Minutes were approved.
- New Business
 - Introductions of new members to the CAAC – Abigail Slaven, Joan Hume, and Sherry Knapp-Brown.
 - Heidi distributed new contact list and the Ethics Policy Handbook
 - Gallery
 - Neil Moore photography from the national parks of the West, opening gallery is May 2nd.
 - Request from Kim Hunker, photographer, for show titled “Through the Eyes of Kim” for the final available slot in 2015. Leslie made a motion to approve, Joan 2nd motion, all approved.
 - Theatre Events
 - Mystic Drumz is on April 25th
 - Brasilia (f/k/a Samba Jazz Syndicate) featuring Phil DeGreg, is on Saturday, May 3rd.
 - Fairfield Footlighters’ final production of the season: Same Time Next Year, opens May 23rd.
 - Village Green
 - Fine Arts Festival is scheduled for Sunday, June 22nd.
 - Huffman Park/Harbin Park
 - n/a
- Old Business
 - Bekka offered a thank you to Fairfield Footlighters, for the use of props for her production of Uncle Vanya.
 - Volunteer Dinner is scheduled for Thursday, April 24th. Mr. and Mrs. Dan and Jeanne Schindler receive the Friends of the Arts award this year.
 - Heidi reminded everyone that the city has retained Eppley Institute to help create a 10 year master plan for the city and the parks department. She said that we will be contacted to be interviewed.
 - Capra – Commission for of Accreditation of Parks and Recreation Agencies– peer review is scheduled for the 3rd week of May. Site visit will be end of July. 5 year accreditation program.
- New Business
 - Pat suggested that the FCAC host a book reading/signing for Phil Nuxhall’s new book – “Stories in the Grove”. Heidi asked that Phil contact her with dates, costs, etc. Heidi suggest that it might be something that the FCAC can co-host with the Fairfield Lane Library. Also suggested he consider a booth at the Fine Arts Festival.
- Publicity/Marketing
 - n/a
- Additional items of notes:
- Next Meeting: May 20, 2014 @ 7:00 pm
- Adjournment: Bekka Reardon made a motion to adjourn the meeting at approximately 8:10 pm, Sherry Knapp-Brown 2nd it.