

CAAC Meeting for Tuesday, October 21, 2014

- Call to Order / Roll Call List was passed around.
 - Meeting called to order at 7:08 pm
 - In attendance were: Leslie Besl, Bekka Reardon, Victoria Bailey, Ben Strickler, Sherry Knapp-Brown, and Joan Hume.
 - Absent: Pat Davis, Darin Newcomer, Heidi Schiller, Abigail Slaven, and Bob Breen.
- Minutes- Reviewed minutes from September. Ben noted a correction on the spelling of the Belairs. Sherry made the motion as corrected, Joan 2nd the motion. Minutes were approved.
- New Business
 - Parks and Recreation Department
 - Department received their accreditation renewal. There were 144 standards – 36 of those were required (we met all 36), 108 standards were optional (we met 104 of those).
 - It is a 5 year cycle with annual reports and then re-accreditation.
 - Gallery
 - n/a
 - Theatre Events
 - Lexington Children's Theatre production scheduled with 3 school shows on Thursday and Friday. The Friday evening performance is open to the public.
 - Ingrid Woode and the Woode Tribe Orchestra will be performing as a rental client on November 1st. It will be a cd/dvd project release concert.
 - Jazz Alive performance- Marlin McKay on trumpet November 1st as a tribute to Donald Byrd.
 - Dan St. Paul will be performing on November 8th.
 - Tartan Terrors were sold out and a very good performance.
 - Village Green
 - 7th Annual Cruise In On the Green had approximately 162 cars registered. With the Belair concert very good and well attended afterward.
 - Final Movie in the Park is on October 4th –Hotel Transylvania. There will be discussions with the Fire Department about the run dates of the Movies in the Park which currently are the first Friday of the month, May through October. The goal will be to maximize weather related attendance.
 - Light of Fairfield is scheduled for December 6th. Holiday decorating has begun and listings of Festival of Trees sponsorships submitted to businesses. Light up Fairfield will be a community event with horse drawn carriages, Choraliers, etc.
 - Huffman Park/Harbin Park
 - n/a
- Old Business
 - Comment was made regarding the prompt price posting of exhibited pieces and also the prompt sold posting of the pieces.
- Publicity/Marketing
 - n/a
- Additional items of notes:
 - n/a
- Next Meeting: November 18, 2014 @ 7:00 pm
- Adjournment: Bekka made a motion to adjourn the meeting at approximately 7:40 pm, Leslie 2nd it.