City of Fairfield Announces New Finance Director

FAIRFIELD, Ohio – The City of Fairfield has named Christopher Hacker as its new Finance Director.

Hacker, joins Fairfield with a wide breadth of experience in local government, serving in the Finance Departments at the cities of Hamilton and Centerville. He currently serves as the Director of Assets, Procurement and Projects for Butler County. He has a Master of Business Administration from the University of Northwestern Ohio and completed his undergraduate studies at Miami University.

City Manager, Scott Timmer, is confident that Hacker's transition to the Finance Director role will be seamless. "Chris brings the right mix of innovation, creativity, and discipline to the City's Finance Department. Being familiar with Chris's work both professionally and as a volunteer has allowed me to see the dedication and tenacity in which he tackles anything that comes his way. The City of Fairfield is excited to add Chris to our high functioning team."

Hacker is expected to begin Finance Director duties with the City of Fairfield on October 31st.

*Fairfield covers 21 square miles in Southwest Ohio just north of Cincinnati with 44,500 residents and more than 1,200 corporate, retail, service and light industrial establishments.
