City Councilmember Dale Paullus Appointed to Serve on National League of Cities' Transportation and Infrastructure
Services Committee

Fairfield, OH — Dale Paullus, Second Ward City Councilmember of Fairfield, OH has been appointed to the National League of Cities \(NLC\) 2023 Transportation and Infrastructure Services federal advocacy committee. Councilmember Paullus was elected to a one-year term and will provide strategic direction and guidance for NLC's federal advocacy agenda and policy priorities on transportation. The appointment was announced by NLC President Mayor Victoria Woodards of Tacoma, Washington.

Councilmember Paullus had the following to say about his appointment: ““The opportunity to serve on the National League of Cities 2023 Transportation and Infrastructure Services federal advocacy committee is a remarkable opportunity to advocate for infrastructure improvements throughout the City of Fairfield, State of Ohio, and nationwide. I want to thank the NLC for the opportunity to continue to serve our residents and do so with my peers throughout the country.”

As a member of NLC's Transportation and Infrastructure Services Committee, Councilmember Paullus will play a key role in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocate on behalf of America's cities, towns and villages before members of Congress, with the President's administration, and at home.

“NLC's federal advocacy committees are a key tool for gathering insights directly from the communities that our members serve,” said NLC President Mayor Victoria Woodards of Tacoma, Washington. “I am excited to have Councilmember Paullus serve on the Transportation and Infrastructure Services Committee and look forward to working with him to ensure every city, town and village in this nation has the resources they need to thrive.”

This year's Transportation and Infrastructure Services Committee will be led by Chair Kate Kruller, Councilmember, Tukwila, Washington; Vice Chair Vanessa Fuentes, City Councilwoman, Austin, Texas; and Vice Chair Dan Kealey, City Councilman, Burnsville, Minnesota.
