City Council mourns the loss of Councilmember Bob Myron

Fairfield, OH - Bob Myron, a Fairfield resident for more than 40 years and a City Councilmember for the past year, died on Wed., July 19, 2017. He was 76.

Bob was selected in May 2016 to fill the First Ward City Council seat when the incumbent member moved out of the ward. Prior to this appointment, he had been a member for five years of the City's Parks and Recreation Board, serving as vice chair and representative to the City's Planning Commission.

"Bob was a tremendous asset to City Council as a dedicated 40-year resident of Fairfield with vast business knowledge and experience and a prestigious education," said Mayor Steve Miller. "We are deeply saddened by his loss and our sympathies are with his wife, Vicki, and their family. He was a wonderful person and champion for our City, and we will miss him greatly."

Bob and Vicki have two adult children, Patrick and Kelly, and three grandchildren. He was retired after a career in marketing and sales management with Mosler, Inc., and Bob Myron & Associates.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh. His education also included the Industrial Marketing Program at the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University, and the Marketing Management Program at the Harvard Business School.

Other community service work that Bob performed included president and several terms with the Butler County Mental Health Board, and past member of the United Way Board. He was also a member of Sacred Heart Parish.

Visitation will be Monday, July 24, 2017, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at Avance Funeral Home, 4976 Winton Rd., Fairfield. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 11 a.m. Monday at Sacred Heart, 400 Nilles Road, Fairfield.
