Seward Road Closing August 7 for a Few Weeks

Fairfield, OH – Motorists are advised that Seward Road will be closed to through traffic between Union Centre Boulevard / Symmes Road and Tylersville Road starting Monday, August 7, 2017.

The closure is scheduled to last approximately three weeks, weather permitting. The entrance to the bike trail parking area will be accessible to users coming southbound from Tylersville Road.

The closure is for work being performed by W.G. Stang, the contractor for the City of Fairfield, to the existing culvert adjacent to the bike trail and just south of the Norfolk Southern railroad tracks.

A detour will be posted directing traffic around the construction site via Symmes Road to Bypass 4 to Tylersville Road. Portable message boards are being posted this week to advise motorists of the upcoming closure.
