FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Friday, Nov. 10, 2017

Police conducting food drive and chance to be "cop for a day"

Fairfield, Ohio – Fairfield Police are collecting non-perishable food items for the Fairfield Food Pantry to help local families this holiday season.

Items can be dropped off in the lobby of the Police Department at 5230 Pleasant Avenue starting November 13 through November 30.

With donations, children can be entered into a drawing to be a "cop for a day". One boy and one girl, ages five to 17, will be selected to spend the day with Fairfield Police Officers (K-9, detectives, crime scene technicians, patrol, and SWAT).

Food items needed include cereal, canned fruit, applesauce, corn, green beans, mixed vegetables, beans, soup, canned meals, peanut butter, spaghetti sauce, spaghetti, boxed side dishes, macaroni and cheese, sweet snacks, and salty snacks.

Visit www.fairfieldoh.gov/PoliceFoodDrive and www.fairfieldfoodpantry.org for more information.
