Miller St. Boutique Now Open Downtown!

Miller St. Boutique, named after co-owners Stephanie Miller Gonya and Tara Miller Smithson, is now open at 702 Nilles Road.

This was the former location of Pleasantree Gift Shoppe, and the owners jumped at the opportunity to locate here from a booth at the Ohio Valley Antique Mall on Route 4.

Stephanie and Tara made significant improvements and alterations to the inside of the store, including built-in dressing rooms, new lighting, and brand new paint and flooring throughout. As Stephanie says, Miller St. has "something for everyone" including women's clothing, clutches, Lahvdah products, antique items, and much more.

Store hours are Monday - Friday 10AM-6PM, Saturday 10AM-4PM (closed Sunday). For more information, visit @themillerstreet on Facebook or call (513) 829-0432.

Mercy Health-Fairfield Celebrates 40 years

Mercy Health celebrated its 40th anniversary of operating in Fairfield with a large gala on Sunday, Sept. 15, at the Savannah Center in West Chester. Many local business leaders, elected officials, and community members were in attendance.

"We gathered together to celebrate the 40-year anniversary of our Mercy Health-Fairfield Hospital and its service to our community," said Tom Urban, Market President and CEO, North Market, Mercy Health Cincinnati. "It is both an honor and privilege to continue the health ministry started over 126 years ago in this community by the Sisters of Mercy. Their focus then – and most certainly continuing today – is to provide the very best healthcare to all those in need with special emphasis on the poor, dying and underserved."
